

Investigations and Sanctions:

Complaint Form

1. About this Form

Complete this form if you wish to make a Formal Complaint about a landlord you believe may have breached the areas of rental law outlined below. Please provide as much information as possible as this will assist the RTB in handling your Complaint. For further information on the Complaints process, please read the “Guide to Making a Complaint” which is available on the RTB website www.rtb.ie.

If an investigation takes place, a copy of this form, any attachments and any further submissions you provide will be sent to the landlord in question. Your personal contact details will not be provided to the landlord, but he/she will be aware of the name of the complainant.

If an investigation cannot take place, a letter will issue to you and to the landlord. The landlord will be informed that a Complaint was made against them and of the nature of the Complaint. Your name will not be sent to the landlord.

5. Type of Improper Conduct You Wish to Report

(Please tick all the relevant boxes that apply)

A. Failure to comply with Rent Pressure Zone (RPZ) requirements when setting rent.

Prior to 16 July 2021 in a RPZ rent could only increase by up to 4% per year or 24 months in an area newly designated as an RPZ.

After 16 July 2021 rent in an RPZ can only increase by up to the percentage difference between the Harmonised Index of Consumer Pricing (HICP) on the date that the rent was previously set and the date the new rent is set.

After 11th December 2021, when setting the rent at the start of a tenancy in an RPZ or when carrying out a rent review in an RPZ, rent increases are capped at 2% per year on a pro rata basis, where HICP inflation is higher.

Please state the previous rent amount, the date it was set, the new rent amount and the date this new rent was set in Section 6 Details of the Complaint about the Landlord if this applies to you.

B. Incorrectly relying on an exemption to RPZ requirements.

There are two exemptions to RPZ rules, which may allow a landlord to increase rent by more than 4% per year. If a property:

- ▶ has not been rented in the previous two years (one year for a protected structure) or
- ▶ has undergone a substantial change (as defined in law).

Tick the one that applies above.

C. Failure to notify the RTB if relying on an exemption to RPZ rules.

Where a landlord seeks to rely on an exemption to RPZ rules, they must notify the RTB within one month of the new rent being set.

D. Failure to register a tenancy with the RTB.

All landlords are obliged to register new tenancies with the RTB within one month of the tenancy commencing.

E. Failure to notify the RTB of changes to the rent or any other particulars of a tenancy.

The details of a registered tenancy must be updated within one month of a change to the rent payable under the tenancy. The details to be updated include the amount of rent now being charged, the date that rent change took place and any other details of the tenancy which have changed since the tenancy was registered or last updated.

F. Providing a reason for ending a tenancy in a Notice of Termination which is known to be false or misleading. (Please submit a copy of the Notice of Termination with this form if this applies to you. If you have misled the Notice of Termination, please include the date of the Notice of Termination and the reason stated in the Notice for ending the tenancy in Section 6 Details of the Complaint about the Landlord.)

A Complaint can be made if you believe that the reason given in a Notice of Termination is known by the landlord to be false or misleading.

G. Failure to offer a tenancy back where it has been terminated for certain reasons which are no longer relevant. (Please also tick the reason for termination that applies in 1 - 4 below)

The following grounds for termination require the landlord to offer the tenant a chance to return to their tenancy in certain circumstances.

If the Notice of Termination was served before 06/07/2022 please confirm whether you provided your contact details in writing to the landlord for this purpose within 28 days.

YES NO

If the Notice of Termination was served after 06/07/2022 please confirm whether the landlord was in possession of the tenants correct contact details at the time that they should have offered the tenant a chance to return to the tenancy.
